Global Administrative Law in Practice

“The War in Ukraine and the Prospect of EU Enlargement: Regional and Global Implications”

This week-long summer program is focused on the latest global and regional reactions to the war in Ukraine, with a special emphasis on the EU as a global actor. The program will zoom in five key areas of interest, with a view of assessing how effective international institutions have been so far in addressing the repercussions of the Ukraine war and whether their reform is in order to administer relevant future challenges. In particular, the five areas of interest are: Europe’s energy crisis, EU economic and monetary policy, sanctions, EU enlargement, and finally humanitarian assistance.
